

Congressional
Black Caucus
Foundation, Inc.

36th Annual Legislative Conference September 6-9, 2006

U.S. Representative
Julia Carson (IN)

Congresswoman Julia Carson and the Congressional Black Caucus
Annual Legislative Conference present:

PUBLIC HEALTH, ENVIRONMENT AND TRANSPORTATION: In Pursuit of Livable Communities

Friday, September 8, 2006

9:00 a.m. - 11:50 a.m.

Room 140B, Washington Convention Center
801 Mount Vernon Place NW, Washington, DC

Panelists will discuss ways to create safe, healthy, and livable communities through smart growth strategies and transit friendly choices.

Panelists

Gov. Parris Glendonning
*President, Smart Growth
Leadership Institute*

Dr. Howard Frumkin
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Geoffrey Anderson
Environmental Protection Agency

Dr. Gene Gary-Williams
AARP National Policy Council

Gil Holmes
Indianapolis Public Transit Corporation

Carolyn Coleman
B&D Consultants

Paul Morris
Vice President, Managing Principal of PB PlaceMaking Parsons Brinckerhoff, Inc.

Moderator

Mason R. Goodman, M.D.
President and CEO, Healthcare Resources, Inc

For more information contact the Office of U.S. Rep. Julia Carson, (202) 225-4011, Marti Thomas, marti.thomas@mail.house.gov or Daniella Gratale, daniella.gratale@mail.house.gov

This issue forum is free and open to the public